JOHN SUMMARY

John's gospel is the story of Jesus, the Messiah and the Son of God. John describes how Christ's incarnation and death on the cross made God known and secured eternal life for all those who believe in him. Matthew, Mark, and Luke are usually referred to as the "synoptic gospels".

The word "synoptic" originates from two Greek words (syn, meaning "together", and optic, meaning "seen") that mean a combined view, a synopsis". John stands in distinction to them in that it does not follow such a strict sequential rendering of the Lord's ministry. It carries no parables and only seven of the miracles that Jesus delivered. Moreover, it deals more with the conversations, discourses, and prayers of Jesus.

JOHN FACTS AND THEMES

Author: John the Apostle

Date: 90-100 CE

John was likely writing for a Jewish audience. He literally structures some of the events around the Jewish calendar and his stories are set much more frequently in Jerusalem than any of the other gospels. The Jewish people were wrestling with who Jesus was- was He their Messiah?

Certain themes appear in each book of the Bible. For John, major themes include: eternal life and what it means, being a witness for Christ, life, Jesus as the Messiah, Jerusalem and what it means to have Jewish identity, identity itself, as well as signs and wonders.

HOW TO JOURNAL

Items needed for each day:

Bible

Pencil/Pen

Journal

S - SCRIPTURE

Open your Bible to your reading for the day. Take time to allow God to speak to you. When you are finished, look for a verse that really stood out to you and write it down in your journal.

O - OBSERVATION

What do you feel like God is saying to you? Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you and reveal more about Jesus.

A - APPLICATION

Make it personal. How does this verse or scripture apply to you. Write down what you can use from it for today.

P - PRAYER

This section can be as simple as asking God to help you use this verse, or even a prayer for him to reveal himself more to you. Be ready to listen, prayer goes two ways.

HOW TO S.O.A.P

SCHEDULE YOUR READING

Set aside a time and a place to read. Having a distraction free environment allows us to dive deeper into Gods word.

PRAY BEFORE READING

Ask God to reveal things to you. Do not simply rely on your own knowledge.

READ WITH A COMMENTARY

Bible Commentary allows us to gain scholars insight into the scripture we are reading.

We recommend 'Blue Letter Bible' by David Guzik.

READ WITH A FRIEND

Have someone to help you stay accountable to your daily reading.

"As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another." (Pro 27:17)

SHARE WHAT YOU ARE LEARNING

Some people learn more by talking about what they've read. In your connect groups be sure to talk about what God is showing you.

After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), "I thirst." A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

John 20:21-23

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Use this day to reflect on two key verses from this weeks readings.

John 21:16-17

He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.

John 21:22-23

Jesus said to him, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me!" So the saying spread abroad among the brothers that this disciple was not to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?"
